

Scriptures turn into CASH!

Story by Adam Price. Photos by Rebecca Ellis

On Sunday 10 September, the end of term Memory Verse Competition was held with awesome success.

This term's winner, Chelsea Rieck, followed in her younger brother's footsteps by taking a clean sweep on all eight memory verses for this term and winning $100.00 cash.

The tension was high. You could have cut the air with a knife as we got down to the remaining memory verses, but Chelsea dug deep with true grit and came up with the goods!

A close friend to Chelsea said that she might buy that cool kid's leader something special with her winnings - that's me (Adam) by the way. But I won't hold my breath, as this source is of the liquid variety. You know, has trouble holding onto the truth.

Noah's Farm visits Children's Church!

Story by Rebekah MacArthur. Photos Alyce Capek, Rowena Ykema

A few weeks ago you may have noticed something different about Children's Church. The lesson that week was based on the story of when Jesus drove the money changers out of the Temple, (Matthew 21:12-13). This story involved

Jesus throwing the animals that were for sale, and their owners, out of the Temple.

To make the lesson more powerful to the kids, Adam decided to bring his own animals, so he hired out Noah's Farm. There were lambs, piglets, ducks and heaps of other cute animals for the kids to play with. Over all, it was a great morning with lots of fun things to do and a message behind it all.
